

Suzanne Bowling is a Senior Human Resources Professional for The Employer Advantage, a Professional Employer Organization (PEO) that provides Human Resources, Payroll, Risk Management, Training, and Benefit Administration services to hundreds of clients across the United States. At Employer Advantage, she works with a variety of companies to provide assistance with employment regulations, employee issues, training, as well as almost anything else HR related.

Suzanne has 25+ years of human resource and training experience and has worked in Human Resources in a variety of companies from startups to large corporations. She also has taught the SHRM Learning System for William Woods University and Human Resource graduate classes for Webster University.

Suzanne has a M.S. in Human Resource Development from Pittsburg State University and is a certified facilitator for Ntrinsx. She holds the national certifications of Senior Professional in Human Resources and SHRM Senior Certified Professional.